AUTHORITY: Florida Statute: 1004.65, 1007.263 Florida Administrative Code:	SEE ALSO:  • Administrative Procedure 10-00AP: Admission Policy
DATE ADOPTED: 12/01/97; Revised 01/22/01; 05/21/01; 05/17/10; 6/28/10; 06/20/16

~~The College has established standards for admission to assist students with their transition to college studies. The College affirms its policies of equal opportunity and open admissions. All applicants for admission are considered solely upon the basis of individual qualifications without regard to the applicant's race, ethnicity, age, religion, national origin, gender, disability, or marital status. The College reserves the right to deny admission to any applicant about whom there is evidence the individual may be disruptive or may interfere with the orderly conduct processes, functions, or programs of the College.~~

~~As a member of the Florida College System, Tallahassee Community College complies with Florida Statutes 1004.65 and 1007.263 which (a) outlines the college governance, mission and responsibilities; and (b) authorizes the district Board of Trustees to adopt rules governing admission of students in accordance with minimum standards for admission to associate degree programs. The College is authorized to offer admission to students in adult education services, career certificates, associate degrees and baccalaureate degrees.~~

~~Specifically, Florida Statute 1004.65 (4) affirms the College's open-door admission policy and equal opportunity/non-discrimination policy.~~

~~(4) As comprehensive institutions, Florida College System institutions shall provide high-quality, affordable education and training opportunities, shall foster a climate of excellence, and shall provide opportunities to all while combining high standards with an open-door admission policy for lower-division programs. Florida College System institutions shall, as open-access institutions, serve all who can benefit, without regard to~~ age, race, gender, creed, or ethnic or economic background, while emphasizing the achievement of social and educational equity so that all can be prepared for full participation in society.

As an institution of higher education, the College reaffirms its policies of equal opportunity and open admissions. All applicants are considered solely upon the basis of individual qualifications without regard to the applicant's race, color, ethnicity, genetic information, national origin, religion, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, pregnancy or age. Specific and detailed definition of requirements for admission of student shall be published in the college catalog.

The College reserves the right to restrict the size of enrollment in select programs based on limited facilities.

The College reserves the right to deny or rescind admission to any applicant/student whose record of behavior indicates that he or she would disrupt the orderly process/enrollment of the college's programs or would interfere with the rights and privileges of other students, including the falsification of the admissions application and/or the submission of fraudulent documents.
